

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER

JUN 15 2010

Amendment of the abstract

Please replace the abstract as filed with the following:

-- The invention discloses modification of pixels of an image in such a way that the average of the colors of the pixel in the modified image equals the average of the colors of the pixel in the source image, such that the human perception of the modified image is the same as the source image, while a camcorder will record an unsatisfactory mixture of the modified colors. --